Questions for reflection (please answer fully on a separate page)

- Cedarkirk's DTS program is designed to allow space for growth by serving all ages and stages of faith in a retreat setting. This practical service encourages one to become aware of his or her current skill sets and to grow into others.

What are some of the skills or gifts you bring to camp ministry?

- Another major component of the program is the opportunity to grow through weekly Bible studies and discussions, personal spiritual practices, and discernment assignments.

Throughout the duration of DTS, what are you hoping to discover about yourself and God's call for your life?

- Where do you think you currently are in the process of discovering God's plan for your life?
- Tell us about your personal journey of faith thus far.

- In addition to assigned discernment homework and group Bible study and discussions, the camp setting is a place for deliberate discernment through journaling, spiritual disciplines, connecting to God in a natural setting, and living a simple lifestyle.

Are there any spiritual practices you currently do to maintain your faith?

- A vital part of this discernment program is the residential experience with an intentional focus on Christ-centered, communal living.

Describe what life in intentional community looks like to you.

- What considerations do you feel you need to make this program work for you?
